Meetings and Procedures

The Committee shall hold such regular or special meetings as its members deem necessary or appropriate. The Committee has the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company's bylaws that are applicable to the Committee.

Authority

The Committee shall have full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company as deemed necessary or appropriate by any member of the Committee to discharge the responsibilities hereunder, including human resources, legal counsel or other personnel assisting in the preparation of the Company's filings with the SEC. The Committee shall have direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any such Advisor, and such Advisor shall report directly, and be accountable, to the Committee. Other reasonable expenditures for external resources that the Committee deems necessary or appropriate in the performance of its duties are permitted and shall be incurred at the Company's expense.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees as appropriate, including, but not limited to, if an exemption from Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act under Rule 16b-3 is desired, a subcommittee composed solely of at least two members of the Committee who are "non-employee directors" under Rule 16b-3 to grant awards of equity securities and to take such other actions as may be necessary or appropriate to qualify transactions in the Company's equity securities under the Rule 16b-3 exemption. The operation of the Committee shall be subject to the Bylaws of the Company as in effect from time to time and Section 141 of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

The approval of this charter shall be construed as a delegation of authority to the Committee with respect to the responsibilities set forth herein. In making recommendations to the Board for determining the long-term incentive component of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation, the Committee may take into consideration the Company's performance and relative stockholder return, the value of similar incentive awards given to chief executive officers of comparable companies, the awards given to the Company's Chief Executive Officer in past years, other elements of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation including total compensation and such other criteria as the Committee deems advisable. The Company's Chief Executive Officer may not be present during the voting or deliberations regarding his or her compensation.

3. The Committee shall review, determine and approve the compensation (or, if it deems appropriate, recommend to the Board for determination and approval the compensation) and other terms of employment of each such officer, taking into consideration the officer's success in achieving his or her individual performance goals and objectives and the corporate performance goals and objectives deemed relevant to the officer as established by the Committee or the Board.

4. Compensation of Non-Employee Directors. The Committee shall review and recommend to the Board for determination and approval the type and amount of compensation to be paid or awarded to non-employee members of the Board.

Except to the extent the terms of a plan require administration by the full Board, the Committee shall have full power and authority to administer these plans, establish guidelines, interpret plan documents, select participants, approve grants and awards, and exercise such other power and authority as may be permitted or required under such plans.

To the extent permitted by applicable law and the applicable plan, the Committee also may delegate to one or more executive officers of the Company the authority to grant awards of equity securities to consultants, advisors or employees of the Company who are not officers (as defined in Rule 16a-1(f) under the Exchange Act) or directors of the Company.

However, nothing in this provision requires that any Advisors be independent. The Committee need not conduct this independence assessment with respect to: (a) in-house legal counsel; or (b) any Advisor whose role is limited to (i) consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms, or operation in favor of officers or directors of the Company and that is available generally to all salaried employees; or (ii) providing information that either is not customized for a particular company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the Advisor and about which the Advisor does not provide advice.

10. Annual Evaluation and Charter Review. The Committee shall periodically review, discuss and assess its own performance. The Committee shall also review and assess the adequacy of this charter at least annually, and shall recommend any proposed changes to the Board for its consideration and approval.
